1. On the evening of 12 July, three submarines [ ] were observed in the naval harbor at Oksywie (Oxhöft). 25X1
2. Ships [ ] were in the naval harbor on the morning of 13 July, but they departed from the harbor during the day. [ ] towed in during the afternoon by a Polish naval tugboat. [ ] departed again during the evening. In the harbor area, 8 merchant ships were observed. Of these one was a Russian ship (it looked like a tourist boat); the others were Western ships. Three of them were waiting to get into the coal harbor. 25X1 25X1
3. No naval vessels were seen in the harbor on 14 July; however, during the day there was a lot of flying activity (twin engine propeller driven aircraft).
4. At about 7:30 on the evening of 14 July, the destroyer BLYSKAWICA and the depot ship ZETEMPOWIEC were observed southeast of the harbor. Both were under way towards shore and to anchorage.
5. The ships [ ] were observed inside the bay at Puck, in front order, on a southerly course. They might have been conducting minesweeping operations. [ ] anchor southeast of the harbor entrance. In the harbor area, 13 merchant ships were seen, four of which were Polish. One of these was the S.S. WARMIA. The rest were Western ships. There were three ships in the coal harbor. 25X1 25X1
